

Name: _____

Grammar

Topic: Declarative and Interrogative Sentences

REMEMBER: All sentences must begin with a capital letter and make sense.

A declarative sentence tells something and ends with a period (.)

An interrogative sentence asks something and ends with a question mark (?)

Part A: Write D if the group of words is a declarative sentence.

Write I if the group of words is an interrogative sentence.

1. Have ever visited the Bahamas before? _____
2. The Bahamas is a country made up of hundreds of islands. _____
3. I have visited the island of Abaco. _____
4. How long did you stay in Abaco ? _____
5. There are many settlements on Abaco. _____
6. Where did you go ? _____

Part B: Punctuation Marks . Or ?

Put a . at the end if the group of words is a declarative sentence.

Put a ? at the end if the group of words is a interrogative sentence.

1. My parents and I drove from Marsh Harbour to Sandy Point _____
2. Did you ride on the ferry boat _____
3. We visited three little islands called cays _____
4. I liked walking up the steps in the candy striped lighthouse, in Hope Town _____
5. What did you buy on this trip _____
6. Some men built boats by hand on Man O War Cay _____
7. Can we visit Abaco again _____

