After reading

Read the first part of the article about video games and answer these questions

What is the main topic of the article?
What is Game Development?
Do you need to know about video games to be a game developer?
What are the different components in Game Development?
What does a game developer have in common with a movie director?	