My father's tree house

My father has a tree house in his chena. It is on a big tree. He made it withplanks. It has a roof. He uses a ladder to climb on to the tree house. He spends many nights in it to keep away the animals. There is a pot, an lantern and amat in it. Every Friday and Saturday night, I go to the tree house with my father. We take the food made by my mother with us. I love to watch the red sky in the evening from the tree house.
