Prepositions IN , ON , AT for Places

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with in, on or at.

Lizbeth used to live _____ Nova Scotia but she got a new job.

Now Lizbeth and her husband, Ian, live _____ an apartment _____ a busy street _____ Toronto. They live _____ 8969 Young Street.

Lizbeth wanted to get a place _____ Young Street because she works _____ downtown Toronto.

She loves her job _____ Sunlife Insurance. It is _____ 2387 Dundas Street.

She works _____ a large office on the thirtieth floor. If she has to stay late, the company has rooms reserved _____ a hotel _____ the same street. Ian comes to stay _____ the hotel with her. There are many restaurants _____ the area where she can buy lunch or pick up dinner. Her favourite café is _____ a street crossing Dundas Street.

Sometimes after work, she walks to the Eaton Centre, It's also _____ Young Street. Other times she spends time _____ The World's Biggest Bookstore.

Her husband, Ian, is a writer and he can work _____ home, but he doesn't really like Toronto. _____ Halifax, Ian knew everone. His best friend lived _____ the same area. His brother lived _____ a house _____ the same street.

He shopped _____ the local store and parked his car _____ the street without putting money in a meter _____ the sidewalk. His wife worked _____ a small bank on Harper Road, but she came home early every day. They cooked together when she was _____ home. He misses his old life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS