

TEXT AND GRAPHIC FEATURES

INSTRUCTIONS: Read and match the complete sentence with the correct text or graphic feature in the pictures by drawing lines using the pencil.

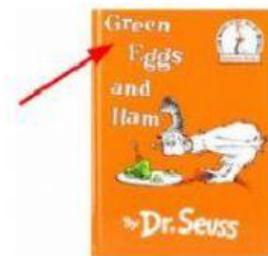

1. The title is the name of the story or book.

2. captions tell what is happening in a picture.

3. illustration is another word for drawing.

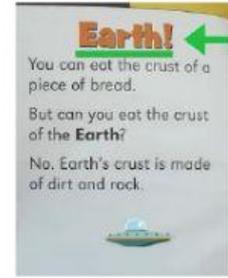

4. author is the person who wrote the story.

5. labels are used to name parts of a picture.

6. bold print is dark words in black.

7. The glossary has words and meanings.

8. The Table of contents has numbers and page names. Tells what number you can find the page on.

9. The index shows words and the pages they are on. It is found to the back of the book.

10. The heading is found on the top of the page to say what you are reading about.

