Victims Trafficked from Vietnam to the UK

[1] Watch the first part of the video. Fill in the gaps.

Hidden _____ the dark, crammed in the back of the lorry - this is how many _____ the people trafficked by criminal gangs are smuggled into _____ UK, part of a grim trade of false dreams and misery. _____ boy who we've called Dinh was just seven when he was trafficked _____ Vietnam. Four years _____ he arrived here stowed in a truck. An actor voices his words because he's too frightened to _____ filmed.

"They put me _____ a big box. They said, 'Just stay still'. I had to eat, and drink, and go to _____ toilet in the corner."

We've either spoken _____, or been given the detailed testimony of five Vietnamese people - four children and one adult who _____ trafficked here to the UK. Their stories are strikingly similar. All remain terrified _____ the people who trafficked them. And _____ the time they'd arrived in this country at ports _____ Dover, they'd been travelling for years.

LIVEWORKSHEETS