The Asian International School

Name:_____ Level and Campus: _____Date:_____

I. Match the parts of a story with their corresponding definition.

| | |
|---|---|
| Characters | It can be a problem that drives the action of the story. If the story does not have this, there are no story. |
| Conflict | The physical location and the time of the story, Is the "Where? And When?" of the story. |
| Settings | Related to the events that happens in a story. |
| Theme | The "Who of the story. The people or animals that makes the action. |
| Plot | The idea or message of the story. |
| Short Story | The Chronicles of Narnia is an example of _____. |
| Poetry | It is written in lines and stanzas and arranged for its meaning, sound and rhythm. |
| | A body of written works. |
| Play | To perform an entertainment or a particular character in a play or film. |
| Novel | A story that is shorter than a novel and usually deals with only few characters. |
| Literature | Prose writing that is based on facts, real events, and real people, such as biography or history. |

LIVEWORKSHEETS