

The escaped man by CT Platt

Past Simple practice.

Connect the beginning of the sentences with their endings.

«Awful night, eh?»

Had to be careful

He shut the door quickly,

The driver couldn't tell

The hitchhiker held

The hitcher stared

The rain sounded like white noise interference

The hitcher glanced over his shoulder

The talk radio show carried on

The person wore a green parka and

They drove in silence

as it battered the car.

in shock.

had the thumb jerked out.

driving on wild nights like these.

as they drove through the wind and rain.

said the driver.

for a short while.

glad to be out of the rain.

into the blackness behind them.

his gaze for a long moment.

if that was a yes or a no.

Type in the present simple form of given verbs.

had

shut

couldn't

held

drove

carried

wore

said

stared

glanced

battered