

George Town Regatta

There are many reasons why my favourite time to visit George Town, Exuma, is during the island's regatta. I love to see those sailboats moving on the beautiful blue waters in Elizabeth Harbour. The breathtaking view gives me such a peaceful feeling. At regatta time, I get the chance to visit old family and friends.

During regatta time, we do things that we do not usually do throughout the year. Last year when the school closed, we drove up from William's Town on Friday afternoon. Before we left the car, Mom surprised us by giving each of us a $10.00 bill to spend. We appreciated this as Mom rarely gives us so much money to spend at once. The first place I went to was the bouncing castle. Some of my friends were already there. I guess we all remembered the fun we had on it last year. After playing on the bouncing castle, I went in search of food. My first stop was at the cotton candy stall. It was as good as I had remembered. I bought conch fritters, snow cones, and fried fish. The regatta is the only time that Mom allows us to eat like this. The food is delicious.

Very early the following day, we went to the regatta site to watch the races. It was the perfect day for me. I found a nice cool spot where I could see the boats. The wind was strong enough for sailing. All of the boats that I was pulling for won their races. After a while, I took a break from the races and went to enjoy the games that were set up for the children. By Saturday night, we were tired, but we still made it out to the rake 'n' scrape concert. It was so much fun. I am looking forward to next year's regatta.
