Grammar: Predicates

A sentence has two parts: a subject and a predicate. The subject is the naming part. It tells who or what the sentence is about.

Example: The firemen washed the fire trucks.

The predicate is the telling part. The predicate tells you what someone or something is doing or did.

Example: Most boys love to play basketball.

Read each sentence. Choose the predicate.

1. The referee blew his whistle.
2. We went on a field trip.
3. She was walking on the beach.
4. The waves were very big.
5. A dolphin jumped out of the water.
6. This animal walks very slowly.
7. Philip ran after a crab.
8. Ducks swim in ponds.
9. Nevaeh hurt her finger.
10. My mother bakes cakes.
