

Plants structures and functions

Drag and drop

Example	Type of root	Description

Prop root

Tap root

Fibrous root

consists of many small branching roots. spread out and can absorb large amounts of water for the plant.

additional small roots above ground, that help support the plant large main root with smaller roots growing from it.