COLLECTING THINGS

Sandra is interviewing Liz.

S: Hi, Liz. Do you collect anyhing?
L: Yes, I do. I collect postcards.
S: How many have you got?
L: I think I´ve got two hundred.
S: Two hundred? That´s a lot. Who do you get them from?
L: Well, all my friends collect postcards, so we swap at school.

Andy is talking to Mary.

A: Hello, Mary. Can I ask you something? Do you collect anything?
M: Yes, I do. I collect hats.
A: Hats?
M: Yes. I like them very much. I get them from my family.
A: How many have you got?
M: I´ve got fifty-two. I got number fifty-three last week. From my mum for my birthday,

A: Did you get all of them as birthday presents?
M: Not only as birthday presents. I also get hats for Christmas and when I get good marks. And I save my pocket money and then I buy a beautiful hat.

Wendy is interviewing Tom.

W: Hi, Tom? What do you collect?
T: I collect toy trains.
W: Oh yes, I remember. How many have you got now?
T: I think I´ve got eighty. I get them from my dad.
W: Aha, here is one more. This is eighty-one, then.
T: Oh, thanks, Wendy. This is a fantastic one. I´ve wanted it for a long time. You´re a good friend.
