

Name _____

Four Kinds of Sentences

Each kind of sentence begins with a capital letter and has a special end mark.

A declarative sentence makes a statement. It ends with a period.

The creek goes through dense forests.

An interrogative sentence asks a question. It ends with a question mark.

Do you see a red kayak?

An imperative sentence gives a command or makes a request. It ends with a period.

The subject (you) does not appear, but it is understood.

Look in the marsh.

An exclamatory sentence shows strong feeling. It ends with an exclamation mark.

The water is freezing!

What a cold day it is!

Directions Rewrite each sentence. Make any needed corrections in capitalization and punctuation.

1. the creek is dangerous in winter?

2. he's not breathing.

3. do you know how to perform CPR.

Directions Complete each sentence with words from the box. Then write whether the sentence is declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory.

think I see something!

make boating dangerous.

the opposite shore.

wear life jackets?

4. Strong winds and tides _____

5. Did the boaters _____

6. Drive toward _____

7. Gosh, I _____

Home Activity Your child learned about four kinds of sentences. Have your child write about an event at school using one example of each kind of sentence.