STEPS TO ANSWERING J.P.R QUESTIONS

Read the passage carefully and in the box write the number of the correct step which shows the right order for the JPR statement. [12]

"To live for Christ means you must be prepared to suffer."
Do you agree or disagree? Give reasons to support your answer.

The Bible teaches through various scriptures that all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. The Beatitudes teaches that blessed are those who was persecuted for Jesus' sake and rejoice and be good for great is your reward in Heaven.

Three years ago, a Christian farm worker in Pakistan, became subject of a dangerous accusation: insulting their Prophet by accepting Jesus as her Messiah. In no time, the mother of five had been shepherded to the district court in the town.

Therefore, I agree that to live a life for Christ means you must be prepared to suffer.

I agree that to live for Christ means you must be prepared to suffer.

The judges found her, a Christian, guilty of blasphemy and imposed the death sentence. It turned out that she was the victim of character assassination and remains in prison and is now awaiting execution.

Many prophets who lived for Christ suffer persecution by being put into prison, killed, stoned or arrested. Stephen was chosen as a deacon to assist the Apostles, but he went further and became a great man of good who taught His words. Stephen was eventually stoned because the Synagogue of Freedmen did not want to hear what he was saying.
