

FOCUS STRATEGY: Determine What's Important

How to DETERMINE WHAT'S IMPORTANT

Focus Strategy

Track your thoughts by taking notes on the following:

- 1. Find the Main Idea Write what the selection is mainly about.
- 2. Take Note of Important Details Write key information.
- 3. Summarize Write the most important ideas in your own words.

- A. Read the passage. As you read, use the strategies above to determine what's important. Then answer the questions.

Look Into the Text

When I got a hold of the picture, I went ballistic. "This is the type of propaganda that the Nazis used during the Holocaust," I yelled. When a student timidly asked me, "What's the Holocaust?" I was shocked.

I asked, "How many of you have heard of the Holocaust?" Not a single person raised his hand. Then I asked, "How many of you have been shot at?" Nearly every hand went up.

I immediately decided to throw out my meticulously planned lessons and make tolerance the core of my curriculum.

From that moment on, I would try to bring history to life by using new books, inviting guest speakers, and going on field trips. . . .

1. What is this passage mainly about?
2. What is the most important idea?
