

Name:

Track 01

Time to Sing

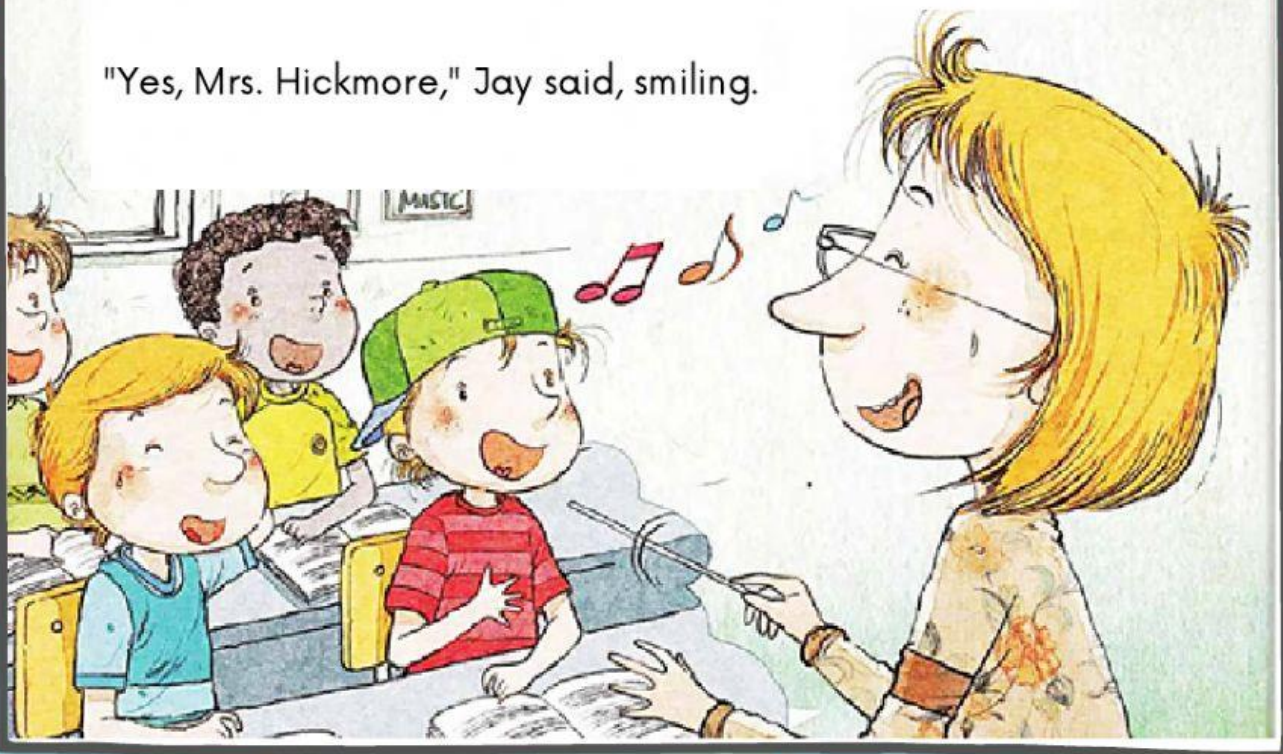

Jay likes school. He loves English and math. He likes science too, but he doesn't like music class! Jay is not good at singing.

Today in music class, Jay was singing very quietly.

"Sing loudly please, Jay." Mrs. Hickmore said.

So Jay sang loudly. Mrs. Hickmore listened to his singing. It was hurting her ears! "Ok, sing quietly, Jay." Mrs. Hickmore said.

"Yes, Mrs. Hickmore," Jay said, smiling.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Practice the Reading Skills

1. Read the story again and complete the chart.

English science school music math

Jay likes ...	Jay doesn't like ...
1 _____. 2 _____.	5 _____.
3 _____. 4 _____.

2. Circle the correct answer.

1 "Mrs. Hickmore listens to his singing." His refers to _____ in this sentence.

a Jay's b Mrs. Hickmore's

2 "It was hurting her ears!" Her refers to _____ in this sentence.

a Jay's b Mrs. Hickmore's

3 How does Jay feel about singing?

a He is happy to sing. b He isn't happy to sing.

4 Why did Mrs. Hickmore say, "Sing loudly, Jay"?

a She liked Jay's singing. b Jay was singing quietly.

5 Why did Mrs. Hickmore say, "Sing quietly, Jay"?

a Her ears were hurting. b She liked Jay's singing.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3 After Reading

A. Check Your Understanding Check True or False.

1 Jay doesn't like music class. ☐ True ☐ False

2 Jay is a good singer. ☐ True ☐ False

3 Mrs. Hickmore likes Jay's singing. ☐ True ☐ False

B. Practice the New Words and Grammar

1. Choose and write.

1 Sally likes to _____ and dance.

2 My favorite subject is _____ .

3 The baby cried _____ .

4 Ouch! I _____ my knee.

5 Read _____ in the library.

Word Bank

science quietly sing loudly hurt

2. Find the mistake and correct it.

1 Jay ~~like~~ school. ➡ likes

2 He don't like music class. ➡ _____

3 Sing loud please, Jay. ➡ _____

4 Jay was sing very quietly. ➡ _____

C. Write about Yourself Write the answer.

1 Do you like singing? _____

2 Are you good at singing? _____

3 What subject do you like? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS