

Imagine Unit 4: Flowers for Algernon

Read the summary of Part One and complete the sentences with the words below. There are some extra words.

progress cooperative reports maze eager results beats make fun operation a bit hit feel sorry for experiment

The story is written from the perspective of a man called Charlie, who takes part in an 1 . The story is a collection of 2 that Charlie was asked to write by his doctors.

At the beginning of the story, Charlie has an 3 to make him smart. As the story progresses, the doctors are 4 to find out whether Charlie will change. They want to see what the 5 of their experiment will be. To test him, they ask him to compete against Algernon, a white mouse, in finding his way out of a 6 . Charlie hates Algernon, because it always 7 him.

Charlie is very 8 about writing the progress reports. He writes about what he learns, how he feels and how his friends react to him changing. We can see that they 9 of him.