

Date

Year

Name

The locomotor system

✿ Read the definitions and choose the correct option.

- They are in the limbs and they are used for movement.
- They provide support and stability to your body.
- They protect the internal organs.

✿ Choose the right bone in each case.

tarsals femur cranium humerus radius spine ribcage pelvis

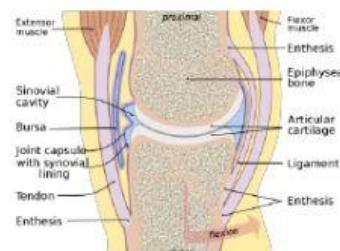

Date

Year

Name

✿ Which type of bone is it? Choose the right option.

- They move just a little bit. Example: vertebrae.
- They don't move. Example: the skull.
- They are free to move. Example: knee.

✿ Choose the best option about the type of muscle.

- They move involuntarily, you can't control them. Examples: the heart and blood vessels.
- They move involuntarily, you can't control them. They are found in our organs. Examples: intestines, esophagus.
- They are joined to the bones by tendons. And they work in pairs. You can move them voluntarily. Example: muscles in your arms and legs.

✿ Put these muscles in their place.

biceps gluteus trapezius Face calves back triceps quadriceps muscles

