

Match heads and tails.

Some of Shakespeare's words

The term mechanical in Act 1
Scene 1 means

Metaphors

Sometimes Shakespeare's sentences

In order to recreate late Modern English
arrangement of words,

Shakespeare's puns

Shakespeare often places

In Act 1 Scene 2,

By indicating he'll throw his writing in different hands,

Cassius says that he will write letters to Brutus.

it is sometimes necessary to rearrange words.

are games with words that sound the same but have different meanings.

refers to working men.

Cassius means that he will use different handwritings.

are ideas expressed as if they were something else.

do not necessarily keep the regular arrangement.

have different meanings or no longer exist.

the verb before the subject and even the object before the subject and the verb.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS