"You're in a lot of problems / trouble!"

I am?

How the hell come I never knew you were single / married?

Hi, Honey.

OH...MY...GOD.

Oh, he said what a great little town this was and what a fabulous house that he built and the truth is ...

You said to / told him you were my wife?

I guess he was under / above the impression that I was ...

...insane?

...to marry to a woman whose face you'd never seen until your wedding day at the church / hospital when the doctor removes the gauze?

What is happening?

You can't stay here.

Why not?

IS

You're a con artist / concert artist.

Newton Davis

We have this incredible / amazing communication, you know. It's like ...

Gwen!

I'm going.

Where did all this / these furniture come from?

Is not

I just told him to go ahead / around and put it on our account.

Mrs. Davis.

Would you mind not going around the house dressed like that? You know, you happen to look very pert.

I want this wedding / marriage to work.

What marriage?

She is the housesitter

I'd like for you to call me "Dad" / "Pop".

Honey, are you okay?
