

Feminine nouns

Most feminine nouns can be used as masculine in certain areas. These are examples of regular nouns that are feminine in general.

- Nouns with -ing (sørfing, dansing etc.)
- Titles with -inne (lærerinne, danserinne etc.)

blokk	block (of flats)	lepper	lip bolle	bun	liste	list
bygd	village	lomme	pocket
bonne	bean	lue	hat (beanie/winter)
bøtte	bucket	lønn	salary
dør	door	mugge	mug
ert	pea	møkk	dirt
flaske	flaske	nøtt	nut
gryte	cooking pot	panne	pan/forehead
hake	chin	plomme	plum
hylle	shelf	pære	pear
hytte	cottage/cabin	pølse	hot dog/sausage høne	hen	reke	shrimp/prawn jakke	jacket	rotte	rat
kai	quay	seng	bed
kake	cake	skjorte	shirt
kanne	can	sol	sun
kappe	cape	strømpe	stocking
klokke	clock	suppe	soup
kone	wife	syre	acid
krabbe	crab	søle	mud
kråke	crow	trapp	stair
kule	bullet	tunge	tongue
kusine	female cousin	tåke	mist
kvise	pimple	tønne	barrel
lampe	lamp	ull	wool

With the vocabulary you have now - write eight sentences including female nous in singular/definite. (Ex: kaka, klokka)

Get some help from Mr. Google if needed, but make sure you understand what you are writing.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.