My Parents' Anniversary

Last week, my siblings and I thought of doing something special to celebrate our parents' 25th anniversary. Therefore, we came out with a plan to throw a surprise anniversary party for them.

We started by making a list of things we needed to do. There were a lot of little things that had to be done including the menu, the anniversary cake, the decorations, the guest list as well as the day and time. We also planned on how we were going to keep it a secret from my parents so that they would be totally surprised on that day. We divided the works accordingly. My elder sister, Fiza and her husband, Afiq, were assigned to arrange a caterer for the party. Meanwhile, my sister, Aziah, was responsible for the decorations. As for me, I had to get the guest list ready.

We had many secret meetings before the party in order to update each other on our progress. Fiza and Afiq decided to order food from Muchie's Caterer and I managed to get my mother's favourite chocolate cake from PG Bakery.

The day finally came. 7th July, Tuesday. In the morning, Fiza took our parents out to buy some groceries. Aziah, Afiq and I put up all the decorations immediately after they left. As soon as we finished, the caterer arrived with the food. We lent a helping hand by arranging all the food and cake on the table.

By 3.30 p.m., all the guests had arrived. Fiza called and told us that they were on their way home. We quickly hid inside the house and waited for their arrival. At about 3.55 p.m. my parents entered the house.

As they stepped into the house, we yelled 'Happy Anniversary'. They were speechless. We had successfully threw a surprise anniversary party for them.

Dancing as a Hobby

Dancing is one of the most adored hobbies around the world. It keeps one active and alert. It is an art form that is developed with intense and rigorous preparation of the body and mind. To be a good stage performer, it involves the movement of the body, as well as your mind and soul.

Dancing is my favourite hobby. Since the early days of my childhood to the present, I have learned and performed dancing on various occasions. I have got a list of awards won by me in various dance competitions. I also vividly remember my very first dance.

Inspired by my cousin, I jumped into dancing at the age of 5 years old. I wore a pink dress and performed a ballet piece. It was one of the memorable days of my life. Since then, I became attached to dancing. I danced in a group on many events and we had won so many prizes, trophies and medals together.

Apart from gruelling dance practice sessions and a handful of experiences, in order to be a good dancer, you need to have a suitable and fitting dance apparel too. For instance, you will not be able to impress the audience by performing a dance with a bad combination of clothes and shoes. Besides looking good on the stage, these clothes can also help you with your dance moves and attract the audience's attention.

There are numerous types of dances that you can find today. For each type, you must learn its moves and adopt the dancing rhythm in order to have a good dancing impression. A good dance performance keeps you motivated and relaxed.

Dancing can also be a strict and demanding hobby. Not everyone have the same needs. To be a good dancer you need to have an active support from your family. I am thankful to my parents who have always encouraged me to be a good dancer. I have earned a lot of respect and recognition among my peers as well.
