A. Join the relative clauses:

1. Steve Callahan was a naval architect who
2. The three forest workers who
3. The stories of two people who
4. The raft gradually developed its own island ecology as crustaceans and seaweed attached themselves, which
5. After spending the night in the hut, she heard voices,
6. He was sailing a boat
7. "I value each moment
8. For food, she only had some candy that
9. "I felt no fear because it was the same environment
10. She came across a path that day. It led her to a small hut where
11. He's gotten help from a girl

- ...found her were alarmed.
- ...loved designing and sailing boats.
- ...also helped to attract more fish.
- ...survived against incredible odds.
- ...that he had built himself.
- ...she had found at the crash site.
- ...she found some gasoline to clean her wound.
- ...whose safety experience was incredible.
- ...which to her sounded like the voices of angels.
- ...that I knew from home."
- ...that is not spent in pain, desperation, hunger, thirst or loneliness."

LIVEWORKSHEETS