

Reading Comprehension

1 Read the texts again. Find the sentences and write J (journal) or N (newspaper article).

1 Swan's light bulb is good, but I know I can make it better.

☐

2 First, the great man himself explained to visitors how his invention worked.

☐

3 I've carbonized the cotton with the help of some of my muckers here at Menlo Park.

☐

4 They saw for themselves the different processes and experiments that he is doing.

☐

5 Today, I'm applying for a patent for my light bulb.

☐

6 Visitors were then permitted to see some of his extraordinary light bulbs in action.

☐

3 Find the words in the texts. Complete the sentences.

copper filament generator patent vacuum

1 _____ is the perfect material to use for our experiment because it conducts electricity.

2 If your invention is a success, you should apply for a _____ so it is officially recognized as your idea.

3 How can we remove the air to create a _____ in this jar?

4 A _____ produces power, such as electricity.

5 Thin wire is used to make the _____ in a light bulb.