GRAMMAR PRACTICE

Countable nouns	Uncountable nouns
✓ There are lots of strawberries.	✓ There is lots of jam.
✓ There are some strawberries.	✓ There is some jam.
✓ There are a few strawberries.	✓ There is a little jam.
✗ There aren't any strawberries.	✗ There isn't any jam.
Are there any strawberries? Yes, there are / No, there aren't.	Is there any jam? Yes, there is / No, there isn't.

1 Look at the picture and make sentences for each number (drag and drop).

There aren't – There is – There are – There are – There are any - some – a few – lots of – some biscuits – cheese – sandwiches – bananas – grapes

1) There aren't any biscuits
2) _____
3) _____
4) _____
5) _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 Listen to Dex and May talking about Dex's sandwich.
Tick the food you listen.

3 Listen again. Write about Dex's sandwich.

1) There are two burgers.

2) _____

3) _____

4) _____

5) _____

A little - some – a few – ~~two~~ – some

LIVEWORKSHEETS