

Listening

Write "yes" in the boxes beside the information you hear, write "no" in the other boxes.

1 You are going to listen to a lecturer talking about the evolution of global communication. Read the topics below and predict which ones you would expect the lecturer to mention.

- a The history of global communication
- b How we communicate today
- c The role of computer games in communication
- d How mobile phones are used in schools
- e How technology has affected communication
- f The differences between how older and younger people communicate
- g The future of global communication