

WHEN AND WHILE

1) We usually use the past simple after when

I was sitting on my bed when I heard a noise

I was sitting on my bed when I was hearing a noise

2) We usually use the past continuous after while

I heard a noise while I was sitting on my bed

I heard a noise while I sat on my bed

- I. The student were doing an exercise _____ the bell rang
- II. I saw an accident _____ I was waiting at the bus stop
- III. _____ she was writing an email, her computer turned off
- IV. He fell down _____ he was climbing a tree
- V. _____ my mom came home, my sister was sleeping
- VI. We found some old photographs _____ we were tidying our room
- VII. _____ you called me last night, I was studying for test
- VIII. I had a bad dream _____ I was sleeping on the sofa
- IX. _____ the fire alarm went off, we were listening to music
- X. She started to cry _____ she was watching a movie