Once you've completed your investigation you'll be whisked back into the present day with a pop culture gallery that shows Sherlock Holmes in all his manifestations from books to movies.

This interactive experience will delight audiences of all ages as it showcases areas of forensic science that enabled Sherlock Holmes to solve crimes, and brings to life the historic underpinnings of author Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's rich and vibrant stories.

B. This is a total success! I absolutely loved the movie. And can we please talk about the actress first? Millie Bobby Brown is perhaps the best young actress in the world right now. Every time her role is of a likeable smart one, and she plays it so beautifully. In Enola Holmes, she did perfectly well.

Enola Holmes is real entertaining, with many adventures and twists. The brave Enola narrates her story throughout the movie and it's so interesting. She is very intelligent, funny, pretty and caring. Other characters like Sherlock and Lord Viscount were also very good. Although I didn't like them, Mycroft and Lestrade were also some characters that made the film cool. I had a continuous smile while watching the whole movie.

C. It's over 130 years since British author Sir Arthur Conan Doyle created the character of Sherlock Holmes. Over the past century, 221b Baker Street's "consulting detective" has appeared on screen in numerous TV and film adaptations. We recently asked fans of Sherlock Holmes to vote for their favourite interpretation of the character in our exclusive poll. Now we can reveal the results! Can you guess whose Sherlock performance is the most popular?

Basil Rathbone played Sherlock Holmes in fourteen Hollywood movies. The series of films was hugely popular and Rathbone remains the definitive Holmes actor to many.

In second place with, it's the star of the BBC's series Sherlock. Benedict Cumberbatch burst on to British screens with three feature-length TV movies from acclaimed Doctor Who writers Steven Moffat and Mark Gatiss.

Topping our poll with 50.32% of the votes, it is of course Jeremy Brett! He played Sherlock Holmes for ten years in Granada television's TV series. Brett is widely regarded as the best Sherlock Holmes actor of all time, as our poll results attest.
