

Past Simple Tense – irregular verbs

There are two types of past tense verbs in English.

They are regular verbs and irregular verbs.

Irregular are all different. You must learn them.

Examples - I eat - I ate We sleep - We slept

Positive sentences was went were made had

Move the past tense verbs into a sentence.

1. I had a toothache last week.

2. Mercedes to the market on Saturday

3. Tracy dinner and it was disgusting!

4. Mohammad always an excellent student.

5. All the students not in college recently.

Negative sentences

We use did in some negative sentences.

didn't = did not

Examples - I went outside last week. We saw you.

I didn't go outside last week. We didn't see you.

The main verb doesn't change in the negative!

negative sentences

didn't buy

didn't speak

didn't fly

didn't see

didn't drink

didn't do

Move the past tense verbs into a negative sentence.

1. The planes this month.

2. I new clothes recently.

3. We any exams this term.

4. I English last week.

5. Anab during the day yesterday.

6. I my family this month.

Questions

We use did in some past tense questions.

Examples - Did you eat your lunch? Did you make the bed?

The main verb doesn't change in questions.

Move the past tense verbs into a question ring send teach feel wear go

1. Did you wear your new dress?

2. Did they go to Colombia last year?

3. Did Tracy use the past tense last week?

4. Did you send an email to Tracy?

5. Did you feel upset yesterday?

6. Did she feel her family yesterday?

Match the irregular past tense verbs lost came paid gave rang had saw read felt made bought rode were did met sold ate spoke got went slept was drank ran sent taught flew learnt knew said left thought

Present	Past
am / is
are
buy
come
do
drink
eat
feel
fly
get
give
go
have
know
learn
leave

Present	Past
lose
make
meet
pay
read
ride
ring
run
say
see sell
send
sleep
speak
teach
think	