

Read the text below. For questions 1-10 choose the correct answer

The biggest store with Ukrainian-made clothes

Ukraine's biggest store selling _____ and accessories made by local producers - Vsi Svoi is right in the centre of Kyiv. It houses around 150 _____ brands of clothes, accessories, bags, lingerie and shoes. The store's owner Anna Lukovkina _____ to gather them all together in one place.

The first floor of the new store offers outfits, bags, shoes and _____. The second floor has a menswear section and a lingerie department. The brands on the floor are more exclusive and expensive.

Before Vsi Svoi market most of the young brands sold their outfits at occasional outdoor fairs known only _____ a small circle of people. Lukovkina wanted to make shopping more convenient, so she rented a place, put in dressing rooms and invited Ukrainian designers to participate.

Only the most popular brands at Vsi Svoi market won spots in the new Vsi Svoi store. Once a brand has launched _____ own mass production, she said, they tend to make _____ clothes of good quality for reasonable prices.

"People are sometimes very critical of _____ brands," Lukovkina said. "If they see flaws in the clothes mass-produced for large chains, they're OK with it. But if a local brand makes mistakes (with their clothes in the store), the negative _____ will be very strong. So I think we need to support them, and, in turn, they won't let us down."

