Virza as a school magazine journalist is interviewing Nina, the OSIS chairman.

Virza	: Hi, Nin. I'm wondering how you manage your time. You are an OSIS chairman. It means that you have many activities at school and home. Can you tell me how?
Nina	: Well, I always try to wake up early. Then, I do short morning exercises to enhance my health before having breakfast with my family.
Virza	: Wow! How about your homework and other jobs in the organization? When do you usually do them?
Nina	: I always make a weekly plan and in the morning, I make sure to plan out my own routine. It helps me do and finish everything on time.
Virza	: That's great. What do you usually do after school?
Nina	: I usually help my mother clean up the house and prepare meals for dinner. After that, I read a book or some news on the internet. It improves my knowledge. I also talk with my family about my activities. Sometimes I tell them my problems and we talk about how to solve them together after dinner.
Virza	: What are the tips in managing daily activities of a successful student?
Nina	: Do your assignments on time and prepare all things the night before. Don't postpone anything you can do now.
Virza	: Umm... that's right. Thank you, Nina. I can learn a lot from you. I hope there will be more students like you. Have a nice day.
Nina	: You are welcome.

Andra	: Hi Brian, how are you? Long time no see.
Brian	: Hello Andra, I'm great.
Andra	: Where do you live now?
Brian	: Here in Yogyakarta, in Purwomartani.
Andra	: Tell me more about your life.
Brian	: There's not much I can share. I spend most of my time working.
Andra	: What line of work are you in?
Brian	: I work in finance. My job mostly deals with accounting. I only have one day off in a month. In the end of the month I have to work late to finish the financial report.
Andra	: You must be so busy, then.
Brian	: Yeah, but thank God they give me a decent salary and health insurance.

Bobby	:	Ronny, what are you doing?
Ronny	:	I am preparing for the school anniversary. As you know, our school anniversary is coming soon. I am busy decorating the school hall with some friends. We want to make a stage to perform a band for the school anniversary and I'm sure our friends will like it.
Bobby	:	How can you be so sure that our friends will like the band?
Ronny	:	Well, I'm sure of it because „De Kill“ Band will be the guest star. It's the most wanted band among teenagers right now. I have contacted them. They are available, but we are still discussing their turn in our anniversary program.
Bobby	:	Wow, it sounds great. I hope the school anniversary is successful and we will enjoy the band, too. Can't wait to see it. Anything I can do?
Ronny	:	Help us finish decorating the school hall. We can do it faster if more friends help us. The school anniversary this year is going to be an unforgettable moment for us.
Bobby	:	OK, I'm really proud of you. You deserve to be the leader of the school anniversary this year.

Last year, my parents were so busy that we seldom had any time to hang out. That was why Mom, Dad, Jack, and I decided to go on vacation together last summer. We booked a fourteen-day tour around London. Then, we went to the British Embassy to get visas to enter England. After that, we started packing our bags.

On the D-day, we boarded a large plane from the JFK airport. The flight to London was more than fourteen hours long. My five-year-old baby brother, Jack, was very nervous because it was his first flight ever. However, as soon as the plane took off, he was fine.

Our accommodation was a well-known four-star hotel. It was located near Hyde Park. Our room had perfect view of the park. The hotel staff were very friendly. It was a great place to stay.

The two weeks in London went by fast. We visited some of the most iconic London's landmarks like Big Ben, Tower Bridge, the forest that inspired "The Chronicles of Narnia", and Buckingham Palace. We ate some of the most amazing English food, including fish 'n chips and chicken pot pie. We experienced culture in such a different way.

At the end of the fourteenth day, we went back home. It was truly a trip of a lifetime. We learned a lot of new and interesting things. We treasure it the most because it helped us bond as a family as we got to spend time together and make good memories.

A funny thing happened when I was out with my friends. It was a Saturday night.

We'd been walking for an hour and looking for a place to eat. Everything seemed to be normal, but something happened. Completely out of the blue, a weird man dressed in strange bright clothes turned the corner and ran to us. "I've been looking for you guys" he said "I've come to the past to warn you, I'm a time traveler. You must know the truth before it's too late" We looked at each other, nobody knew what to say. We were frightened but we kept listening to him: "This information will change your life forever! And the thing is..."

"There you are!" somebody shouted. We saw a police officer running from the same corner where the man had been before. He put the man in handcuffs before he could escape. The officer apologized to us for the incident. He explained that the man had been walking all through the city making jokes and scaring people. He apologized again and then they both went away.

Finally, we kept walking and coincidentally we found a bar called "Future". We spent all the night laughing and talking about this funny and strange experience.
