

A Great Place to Study

INSTRUCTIONS: Choose the correct verb form for each sentence (singular or plural).

Mt. Hood Community College [is / are] a great place to study. The college [is / are] located in Gresham, OR. The college [has / have] many different programs of study that students [enjoys / enjoy]. The campus [has / have] a lot of parking because there [is / are] many students who go there. Some students [drives / drive] to school, but other students [walks / walk] or [takes / take] a bus.

At the college, there [is / are] many different resources available to students. There [is / are] a gym and students often [goes / go] there to exercise or take a class. The college [doesn't have / don't have] a swimming pool in the gym. The swimming pool [is / are] located in the aquatic center.

There [is / are] also a library in the middle of the college. There, students [uses / use] the computers, [reads / read] books and magazines, and [sits / sit] and [talks / talk] to their friends. If students [wants / want] to [uses / use] the student computer lab, it [is / are] located above the library. Additionally, a cafeteria [is / are] located on the second floor of the college. People often [eats / eat] there and [looks / look] at Mt. Hood from the window. It [is / are] a great view.

Many students [enjoys / enjoy] their time at Mt. Hood Community College. They [finds / find] excellent teachers and great classes. And, if they [is / are] lucky, they can make life-long friends with their classmates.