

Join the first half of the sentence and the second half of the same sentence with a line.

| | |
|---|---|
| A museum is a building | show what human life was like in the past. |
| The museums educate people about | the natural world or human culture. |
| Science museums use their collections to | England, opened to the public in 1759. |
| History museums collect objects that | of plants, animals, rocks, and other natural objects. |
| Natural history museums display samples | that holds a collection of objects |
| The British Museum in London, | to the city of Oslo from the artist. |
| Located in Oslo the Viking Ship Museum contains | suitable for high sea voyages. |
| The Munch Museum's collection, was a gift | explain different areas of science and technology. |
| The Gokstad Viking Ship was a fast ship, | buildings from the Middle Ages until the present time. |
| In Sogn there is an open-air museum with more than 30 | 3 of the best-preserved Viking ships in the world. |

LIVEWORKSHEETS