

Join the first half of the sentence and the second half of the same sentence with a line.

| |
|---|
| A museum is a building |
| The museums educate people about |
| Science museums use their collections to |
| History museums collect objects that |
| Natural history museums display samples |
| The British Museum in London, |
| Located in Oslo the Viking Ship Museum contains |
| The Munch Museum's collection, was a gift |
| The Gokstad Viking Ship was a fast ship, |
| In Sogn there is an open-air museum with more than 30 |

| |
|--|
| show what human life was like in the past. |
| the natural world or human culture. |
| England, opened to the public in 1759. |
| of plants, animals, rocks, and other natural objects. |
| that holds a collection of objects |
| to the city of Oslo from the artist. |
| suitable for high sea voyages. |
| explain different areas of science and technology. |
| buildings from the Middle Ages until the present time. |
| 3 of the best-preserved Viking ships in the world. |

