

Fill the gap with the verb in the correct form – past simple or present perfect.

Hey Anna!

I ARRIVE in London on Friday afternoon. It BE great so far! I SEE the Tower of London, the London Eye, and Buckingham Palace. On Sunday, we HAVE breakfast at the hotel; I THINK it was delicious, but James NOT LIKE it. After that, we GO for a walk in Hyde Park. It BE sunny and warm.

I NEVER BE to England before, so it BE exciting to see all these famous places! We VISIT the art galleries yet, but we're going tomorrow, so that will be fun. Last night we WALK past Trafalgar Square and SEE the National Gallery, and it LOOK amazing and very impressive. Can't wait for tomorrow!

See you soon!

Love, Jane

Complete the past participle form of the irregular verbs.

1. She hasn't SHOW me her house yet.
2. My football team has BEAT the other team four times this year!
3. My sister has HIDE my book in her room.
4. I wish I had KNOW this before!
5. Oh no, I've FORGET my coursebook.
6. I think my mother has THROW out the leftovers.
7. Did you hear? That huge ship has SINK in the Atlantic!
8. Have you SHUT the door?
9. He has SEW this shirt himself.
10. Harry has BREAK the window.