E Read the notes below and complete the passage. 2.2.2(b), 3.2.1(a)

Orville and Wilbur Wright

- American inventors.
- 17 December 1903, flew, heavier than air, flying machine
- rose, own power
- flew, even speed
- landed, without damage
- invented, first successful airplane
- sent telegram, father
- inform the press, successful flight
- honoured, Wright brothers
- making dream of flying, come true

The Wright brothers, Orville and Wilbur, were two (1) _____.

On 17 December 1903, they flew with their first powered (2) _____ flying machine at Kitty Hawk. It rose by its own power, flew naturally (3) _____. It landed without damage. They had invented the world's first (4) _____. That day, they sent a telegram to their father. They instructed him (5) _____ about the successful flight. We honoured the Wright brothers for making the dream of flying for human beings come true.

to inform the press	successful airplane	at even speed
heavier than air	American inventors

LIVEWORKSHEETS