

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____ Teacher: _____

Meet the American Bison | Facts | Keywords

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2iVO5mkln1c>

_____, bison, and cows belong to the same animal family. They belong to the animal family, bovine. They are all _____, but different species. Buffalo and bison are _____, they live outside without humans. Buffalo, bison, and cow babies are called _____.

Buffalo and _____ are related. Both buffalo and bison can't scratch their back. If insects bite them, they _____ in the ground to smash the insects. When they roll, some seeds stick in their fur. Later, the seeds fall. Buffalo and bison help _____ seeds.

Although buffalo and bison are related, they have different habitats and have different _____. Buffalo live in Africa and Asia. The weather is warm. Buffalo do not need a lot of fur.

Bison live on the American prairie. It is very cold in the winter. They have thick fur to keep them warm. _____ live in grasslands. They are herbivores and eat grass. When it snows, the grass is hidden. Bison have adapted a large, strong _____ on their back. They use their head like a shovel. They move snow so they can eat the grass.