

Verbs Followed by an Infinitive e.g. She agreed to speak before the game.

agree	beg	dare	forget	intend	neglect	promise	stop	wait
aim	begin	decide	get	leap	offer	propose	strive	want
appear	care	deserve	happen	leave	ought	refuse	struggle	wish
arrange	choose	detest	have	like	plan	remember	swear
ask	condescend	dislike	hesitate	long	prefer	say	threaten attempt	consent	expect	hope	love	prepare	shoot	try
be able	continue	fail	hurry	mean	proceed	start	use

lend hold rain ~~drive~~ drive avoid run meet go bring pay

Mike and I arranged to drive to the cinema and we decided _____ at my house. He planned _____ us there in his new car. I only consented _____ with him because promised _____ for the tickets. It was a disaster. As we got out of the car it began _____ and I had forgotten _____ my umbrella. We tried _____ to the cinema but we failed _____ the rain. Mike rushed to the door first, refused _____ me his coat and neglected _____ the door open for me. What a gentleman!

buy stay go enjoy watch x3

I wanted _____ a horror film but Mike begged _____ the new Star Trek movie. I consented _____ it if he swore _____ me some popcorn. I didn't expect _____ the film but it was so bad that I struggled _____ awake. I couldn't wait _____ home.

Verbs Followed by an Object and an Infinitive. E.g. Everyone expected her to win.

advise	buy	encourage	instruct	love	prepare	tell
allow	challenge	expect	invite	motivate	promise	urge
ask	choose	forbid	lead	order	remind	want
beg	command	force	leave	pay	require	warn
bring	dare	have	let	permit	send
build	direct	hire	like	persuade	teach

Note: Some of these verbs may be used without an object.

run away behave x2 misbehave do x2 roll teach participate join in

If anyone invites you _____ English to minors I would advise you _____ fast! Young children are especially difficult to teach. You can't allow them _____ too much but you can't expect them _____ like adults either. Instead of leaving them _____ around on the floor, you need to teach them _____ properly in class. You can't command them _____ anything they don't want to do. Instead you have to encourage them _____ their best and urge them _____. Songs and games might also motivate them to _____.

Maximise do x2 use work study speak have a chat

Teenagers are difficult too, especially when their parents force them _____ English. Teaching courses tell you _____ class speaking time by using pair work. However if you permit teenagers _____ in pairs you might as well invite them _____ a chat in Spanish. (It doesn't matter how much you beg them _____ in English.) I forbid them _____ their mobiles in class but there's always one phone that starts ringing. I'd love them _____ their homework but they always forget. I can remind them ten times or even beg them _____ it, but it doesn't make a difference.

Complete the worksheet. Fill in the gaps with the adjectives provided.

1. She was _____ to survive the earthquake.
2. I was _____ to go to the movies with you.
3. It is _____ to interrupt people.
4. I am _____ to stay home alone.
5. Were you _____ to see your father on television?
6. Gary was _____ to hear the bad news.
7. I'm _____ to play as a goalkeeper in my football team.
8. Matthew is _____ to run in the marathon.
9. I was _____ to lose the contest.
10. It's _____ to open the door for someone.

Complete the worksheet by putting the adjectives in the correct space.

polite	hesitant	lucky	afraid	rude
sorry	disappointed	proud	glad	surprised

Complete the sentences to cut the meat / to send messages / to enlarge an image / to ~~open doors~~ / to print my homework / to walk the dog / to look up words / to play games / to access the online class / to take photos

- 1- We use keys _____ To open doors.
- 2- I use a knife _____
- 3- He uses his laptop _____
- 4- They use the zoom _____
- 5- She uses the phone _____
- 6- We go to the park _____
- 7- I use the printer _____
- 8- You use the camera _____
- 9- I use the dictionary _____
- 10- I need a password _____