

VOCABULARY 1

Read the paragraphs below with words from the academic discussion. Choose the best definition for each word in blue

a. Reports indicate that efforts to control the epidemic are working, and the number of new cases has gone down. The disease still poses a risk, however, and people traveling to the affected area should postpone their trips.

b. A storm warning is in effect for the East Beach area. If the forecast is trustworthy, the storm will arrive early on Saturday morning and will generate powerful winds. Local residents expressed anxiety about the potential damage to their homes.

c. Will a new self-help book let us conquer our fears? According to a claim by the publisher, readers will learn a basic principle for managing their fears. Is that claim credible? Well, the book includes many anecdotes from people who apparently overcame their fears by following the book's advice.

1. _____
(adj) able to be trusted or relied on

2. _____
(adj) believable and convincing

3. _____
(n) disease that spreads quickly among many people

4. _____
(n) feeling of worry about what might happen

5. _____
(n) a rule or belief that guides how one behaves

6. _____
(n) short stories, often about one's personal experiences

7. _____
(n) a statement saying that something is true

8. _____
(v) represents a danger

9. _____
(v) defeat or overcome something

10. _____
(v) produce or create something

VOCABULARY 2

These sentences will help you learn words in the TED Talk. Read the sentences. Then match the definition with the sentence in which you see the right word in (parentheses).

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Anne gave an (insightful) talk that clearly explained how people can overcome their deepest fears. | 1. a. (v) affect somebody's opinion about something |
| 2. Jenny found it hard to believe all of the (rumors) about the epidemic, but they still frightened her. | 2. b. (v) cause a response or emotion, especially anger |
| 3. Tom understood what it felt like to (starve) after being lost in a desert for a week without any food. | 3. c. (n) a deep and powerful fear |
| 4. The woman's speech used powerful (imagery) that helped people understand and accept her ideas. | 4. d. (n) excitement and uncertainty about what might happen |
| 5. The novel, which had so much (suspense) that people could not stop reading it, became a bestseller. | 5. e. (adj) able to see and explain the truth about something |
| 6. Studies show that news stories about violent crimes often (provoke) a strong reaction in readers. | 6. f. (adj) not direct, obvious, or easy to sense |
| 7. Audiences found the movie very frightening, even though most of the scary moments were (subtle). | 7. g. (n) people who remain alive after a deadly event |
| 8. As soon as news of the disaster spread, volunteers rushed to the hospital to help the (survivors). | 8. h. (n) stories or gossip that may not be true |
| 9. Zack's (dread) of both heights and wide-open spaces made it hard for him to live a normal life. | 9. i. (v) suffer or die from lack of food |
| 10. Sofia let her worries about the journey (influence) her decision about when and how to travel. | 10. j. (adj) visually descriptive language |