

C1.3 Listening Practice 1

Fill in the blanks with NO MORE THAN THREE words:

The speaker is talking about how a good life; is it by the amount of money in a bank account, the number of televisions in a house or is it about and love?

Craig doesn't live in, but he considers himself lucky to have a great wife and kids plus a On the other hand, his brother who is more is not really happy. According to Craig this is because of the that comes with having too much money. It is said that if someone just pays attention to, they might lose out on something more important.

The speaker agrees with Craig and remarks that even though wants to be impoverished, the main focus shouldn't be the number of bills in someone's Misty's family organizations like the Food Bank. This organization, is a true visionary, aims to by 25% in the next three years. Despite her, Misty –who is her father- and her family believe that having a good life means to be able to give back.

According to Claire, she spends in a dingy kitchen in in order to soak up the cash because in her opinion money makes the Claire is a single mom with no who the Food Bank.

Finally, George believes we are the masters of In spite of a day, he doesn't complain, instead, he thinks his work is and allows him to pay, go out with friends and afford a on the right side of the tracks. However, he's had a tough life which hasn't been excuse for him to get back up and since, in his words, life is what