Man:

And what about you, Tina? Have you got a story about a _____ you remember?

Tina:

Yes, I have actually. There's one journey I'll never forget. I was going to _____, from London. The flight was early in the morning, so I made up my mind to spend the night before the flight in a hotel near the airport. When I woke up it was after _____ o'clock. You know you have to get there early to _____, right? So I panicked, took my bags and rushed outside, looking for a taxi. Luckily, after a few minutes an airport bus came along. When I got there, it was actually nearly six so I thought, you know, I've missed my plane. The whole terminal was empty except for a huge crowd of people at one end and luckily, that was the queue for my flight. It was delayed! Yeah. I was really pleased... but the delay went from one hour to nine hours! Finally, at around three o'clock, the plane took off. But the worst part was yet to come! After a few hours there was a huge _____ and the plane started bouncing around all over the place. I was really _____. And then! The worst thing of all — the oxygen _____ dropped down. I put my mask on and just sat there in absolute terror. Anyway, the plane didn't crash, thank God, and we got to Hong Kong OK in the end, but what a journey! I'll never forget it.
