

Complete the blanks with the words and phrases from the box. Be carefull! There are 2 extra words/phrases.

Queen Victoria was the only child of _____ and his wife. Queen Victoria is the great-great _____ of Queen Elizabeth II.

When she was still a child, Victoria promised to be a good queen. She became a monarch when she was ____ years old. She was very _____ and _____ as regards her role as Queen.

Queen Victoria married _____ and they had 9 children. Even though he was her main advisor, he was never elected as such. That is why he received the title of _____ in order to be by the Queen's side during her appearances in Parliament.

The Victorian Era was characterized by the emergence of _____ such as Darwin's Evolution theory, the Industrial Revolution and engineering advancements such as _____ and the _____.

The _____ grew rapidly under Victoria's reign which caused conflicts on different parts of the globe.

One of the most shocking events in the Queen's life was _____ of Prince Albert when he was just 42 years old. After this event, she stayed _____ years away from public life until PM Disraeli communicated her that she had become _____. She is also known as the "Grandmother of Europe" because her _____ are connected to other important royal houses among the continent.

Queen Victoria died on January 22nd, 1901 being _____ by people all over the country. All in all, she reigned for 63 years and it is until nowadays that she is remembered as a symbol of _____.

- Prince Consort
- mourned
- 13
- continent
- 18
- grandmother
- Empress of India
- confident
- the death
- national unity
- Albert
- railway system
- descendants
- enthusiastic
- British Empire
- the building of bridges
- Edward Augustus of Kent
- new scientific theories
- grandchildren