

Story Elements: Characters

A character is a person, animal, or thing that plays an important part in a story. A character acts, feels and thinks.

Circle all of the pictures that resemble a character.

