

Name: _____

Run-on sentences Worksheet

Rewrite these run-on sentences as two separate sentences.

1. We ran we walked.

We ran. We walked.

2. A mollusk is an invertebrate that has a soft body a clam is a two-shell mollusk.

3. A snail is a mollusk that belong to the one shell group snails live on land.

4. The queen conch is one of the largest marine snails it is used for food.

5. The queen conch plays an important cultural and economic role in The Bahamas it is a great export item.

6. the queen conch is used to make conch salad it can be purchased at Arawak Cay.

7. Many tourist flock our shores to eat the queen conch you can eat it raw or cooked.

8. Invertebrates have no backbone mollusk belong to the invertebrate group.

9. Crustaceans are invertebrates they have an exoskeleton.

10. Shrimps belong to the crustacean group squids are not crustaceans.

A run-on sentence is where two complete thoughts are stated without correct punctuation.

