

Name: _____

Homeroom: 10_____

Date: Thursday 23rd September 2021.

Subject: Geography

Topic: Longitude Review (Fill in the blank)

Instruction: Use the words in the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

closer	180	South	east	Greenwich
North	great circle	parallels	meridians	western
Prime Meridian	International date line	west	90

1. North to south lines making up the earth's grid are called _____.
2. These lines extend from the _____ Pole (66.5°N) to the _____ Pole (66.5°S).
3. There are two special meridians of longitude. These are the _____ at 0° and the _____ at 180°.
4. The Prime Meridian splits the Earth into two hemispheres. Line to the east of Greenwich are termed _____ longitude and those to the west of Greenwich are called _____ longitudes.
5. In 1884, it was agreed that the Prime Meridian would run through _____, England.
6. Longitude lines extends from 0° to _____ ° east and west of the Prime Meridian.
7. Each line of longitude form a _____ as they are all equal circumferences.