

Name: _____

Homeroom: 10 _____

Date: Thursday 23rd September 2021.

Subject: Geography

Topic: Longitude Review (Fill in the blank)

Instruction: Use the words in the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

| | | | | |
|----------------|-------------------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| closer | 180 | South | east | Greenwich |
| North | great circle | parallels | meridians | western |
| Prime Meridian | International date line | | west | 90 |

1. North to south lines making up the earth's grid are called _____.
2. These lines extend from the _____ Pole (66.5°N) to the _____ Pole (66.5°S).
3. There are two special meridians of longitude. These are the _____ at 0° and the _____ at 180° .
4. The Prime Meridian splits the Earth into two hemispheres. Lines to the east of Greenwich are termed _____ longitude and those to the west of Greenwich are called _____ longitudes.
5. In 1884, it was agreed that the Prime Meridian would run through _____, England.
6. Longitude lines extend from 0° to _____ $^{\circ}$ east and west of the Prime Meridian.
7. Each line of longitude form a _____ as they are all equal circumferences.