

Unit 2 – Lesson 3 Review: Different Plants

Select the words in the box to fill in the blanks.

stems	flowers	tall	trunks	leaves
-------	---------	------	--------	--------

1. Plants can be _____ or short.
2. They can have thick _____ or thin stems.
3. Trees are plants with thick stems called _____.
4. Plants have different _____ or none at all.
5. Plants can have different _____, too.

Match the words in the box to the correct the statement on the left.

leaves	roots	seeds	stems	trunks
--------	-------	-------	-------	--------

1. These are tree stems _____
2. Carrots and potatoes are these plant parts that you can eat. _____
3. When you eat lettuce and spinach, you eat these. _____
4. You can eat these parts of coconuts and sunflowers. _____
5. Grass has many of these thin things _____

Tall Trees

Look at the photo. It shows plants in a forest. At the top, there is a title that tells about the photo.

Think about what you see. Then circle the best ending of each sentence.

1. Some of these plants are tall. Other are short. dry. wet.
2. Forest plants have many different animals. leaves. roots.
3. The title of this photo is Tall Trees. Little Girls. Read a Photo.

Circle the best answer.

1. Which part of the lettuce plant do people eat?

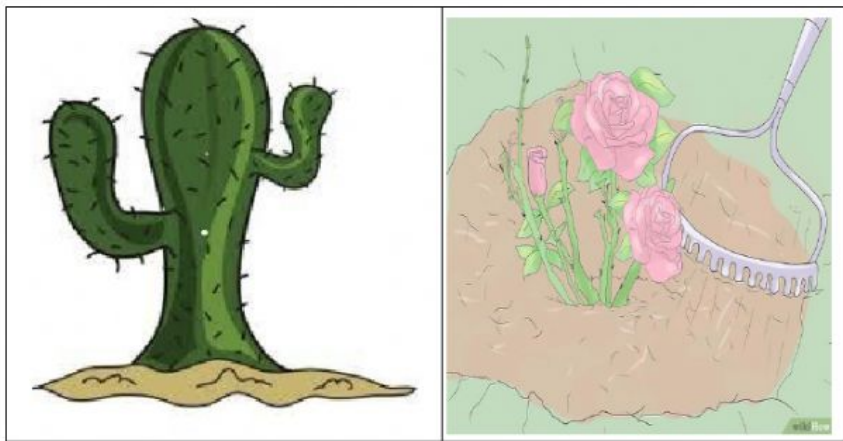

leaves stem roots

2. Which part of a carrot plant do people eat?

leaves seeds root

3. Which part of a coconut palm do people eat?

root leaves seed

Think and Write. Look at the picture above. How are these plants the same?
