Reading Comprehension - Character

Pete Meets the King

The King was brave. The King was kind. He walked along the street. "Good day. How do you do?" He'd say to people he would meet. He knew today he'd meet a knight. The knight he met was Pete.

1. Who is the most important character?

   a. Pete
   b. a horse
   c. the King

2. What does the King do that shows he likes people?

   a. The King asks people to visit his castle.
   b. The king shows people his horse.
   c. The King says, "Good day" to people.

3. How do you think the King feels as he walks down the street?

   a. sleepy
   b. silly
   c. happy

4. The King is _____.

   a. tired and hungry
   b. brave and kind
   c. loud and wild

LIVEWORKSHEETS