IF/UNLESS SENTENCE TRANSFORMATIONS

Complete the sentences so that it means the same as the first using the word in parentheses. Look at the example. NOTE: Please use the contraction "don't" for "do not".

EXAMPLE

If we don't protect wildlife, many species will die. (UNLESS)

Many species will die unless we protect wildlife.

1. Unless we change our driving habits, global warming will get worse. (IF)

Global warming will get worse _____ our driving habits.

2. If people don't recycle their trash, garbage will continue to pile up. (UNLESS)

Garbage will continue to pile up, _____ their trash.

3. Unless we protect them, many endangered species will become extinct. (IF)

Many endangered species will become extinct _____ them.

4. If we don't do something soon, glaciers will continue to disappear. (UNLESS)

Glaciers will continue to disappear _____ something soon.

5. Unless governments react soon, the climate crisis will worsen. (IF)

The climate crisis will worsen _____ soon.

6. If we don't start conserving now, we won't have enough drinking water. (UNLESS)

We won't have enough drinking water _____ conserving now.

7. Unless we stop sea level rise, some beaches will disappear. (IF)

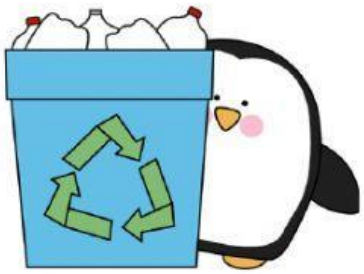

Some beaches will disappear _____ sea level rise.

8. If we don't vote on environmental issues, governments won't act. (UNLESS)

Governments won't act _____ on environmental issues.

LIVEWORKSHEETS