

'I love making playing with my little brother.'

Nathan said that            loved playing with            little brother.

'We aren't going to your party, Kate.'

We told Kate that            weren't going to            party.

'We often take photos of our friends.'

They said that            often took photos of            friends.

'I'm making a film for my school project.'

Anna said that            was making a film for            school project.

'I can't find the book you need.'

Olivia told me that            couldn't find the book            needed.